

The background is a rich, textured painting of a Venetian canal. In the foreground, several gondolas are visible, some with figures inside, navigating the water. The water is depicted with bold, expressive brushstrokes in shades of blue, green, and yellow. In the background, multi-story buildings with balconies and windows line the canal, rendered in warm tones of orange, red, and yellow, contrasting with the cooler colors of the water. The overall style is reminiscent of Impressionist or Post-Impressionist art, with a focus on color and light.
